

GBTEC Accelerates U.S. Expansion with New Office in Providence and Strengthened Market Presence

With a new location and seasoned leadership on the ground, GBTEC is ramping up its growth in the United States, further cementing its commitment to the North American market.

Bochum, Germany, April 30, 2025 – GBTEC, a leading SaaS provider in AI-powered business transformation continues to expand internationally with the opening of a new office in Providence, Rhode Island. Under the leadership of Scott Leddy, Vice President North America, the company is reinforcing its long-term growth strategy across North America.

Bringing GBTEC closer to U.S. customers

The expansion is a key part of GBTEC's broader plan to strengthen its position in intelligent Business Process Management (iBPM), Enterprise Architecture Management (EAM), Digital Process Automation (DPA), and Governance, Risk, and Compliance (GRC). The new U.S. presence allows for closer collaboration with local clients and faster execution of digital transformation initiatives on-site.

"The growth of our U.S. operations is a core element of our international strategy," says Marc Stromberg, Key Account Manager and Co-Founder of GBTEC. "With our new base in Providence and a top-tier team in place, we're well-positioned to deliver powerful solutions with direct, hands-on support."

Leadership that drives sustainable growth

Scott Leddy is equally enthusiastic about the road ahead: "The U.S. market holds tremendous potential, and Providence serves as a strategic starting point for our growth. We're focused on building future-ready projects with our clients and positioning GBTEC as the go-to SaaS partner for digital process excellence in North America."

With this strategic move and a clear vision for growth, GBTEC reaffirms its commitment to guiding organizations worldwide through successful digital transformation.
